For this activity you will be partnered up with a classmate. In the activity your goal will be to successfully build a pyramid as a final resting place for your pharaoh. All decisions made during the process will determine if you will be successful or not.

On our class website there is a link to the interactive game you will play to build a pyramid for the pharaoh in ancient Egypt.

Tips for being successful:

- Follow directions
- Take your time
- Read carefully
- Use the “?” button when it is available
- Discuss all decisions with your partner first
- Think carefully when making decisions (one major mistake will cause you to fail later in the game)
- If you fail the first time try again

If you were successful, describe why you think you and your partner were able to complete the task given to you by the Pharaoh.
